Consent for Evaluation/Treatment

Client's Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

I _____, hereby give full consent for child to receive services of Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT until I notify her or she determines services are no longer appropriate or will no longer be provided. I certify that I have the legal authority to authorize and consent to this treatment or evaluation as parent, managing conservator, or guardian of this child.

CONFIDENTIALITY

I understand that any information I or my child provides to Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT is confidential and generally will not be released to others without my written consent. However, I understand that professional ethical obligations, state and/or federal law might require Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT to disclose confidential information without my consent in certain circumstances. I understand Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT may be required to disclose confidential information, without my consent, in one or more of the following situations:

In the event that the therapy session reveals any information concerning the abuse of a child, elder or disabled person, Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT is mandated by law to make a report to the proper authorities. By signing this document, I acknowledge my awareness of this fact.

If the course of therapy reveals any intent my child may have to harm either himself/herself or others, I acknowledge Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT's legal and moral duty to prevent my child from bringing this harm about. I specifically give my irrevocable permission to warn those parties she feels may be harmed. If my child reveals an intent to harm himself/herself, Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT has my permission, also irrevocable, to prevent my child from accomplishing that intent.

If my child has been referred to this practice by a managed care or insurance company, or I plan to request Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT file for reimbursement with a managed care or insurance company, I am aware of this arrangement. As a requirement of the managed care or insurance company, I understand Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT may be required to provide them with a complete copy of the records generated in my child's therapy. Once these records are in the possession of the managed care or insurance company, Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT cannot guaranty their continued confidentiality.

Additionally, if a law suit is filed by me or my child against Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT for breach of duty; or if a court order, legal proceeding, statute, or regulation requires disclosure of records, I understand legal obligations may require the release of my child's therapy records.

RECORDS

I understand it is stated law that mental health providers maintain a record of the treatment given to me. This record will contain the information that will allow Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT to chart the course of therapy. She will use it only for that purpose. It is her intent that no one will ever see what is contained in the file. I understand I may get a copy of the file only by providing her with a signed release of information request. Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT may provide me with a synopsis of the course of treatment and outcome in lieu of the actual record. I agree I will pay in advance for either the copying cost of the actual record or the time required for the preparation of the treatment summary. This included providing copies or reports to any court or legal representative or designate.

If the therapy sessions contain more than one patient, I agree that no one person may get the complete treatment file. Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT will attempt to maintain separate records on each patient. However, only that individual is entitled to his/her own record. I agree Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT may synopsize the course of each individual's treatment as opposed to providing a copy of what notes may have been made during any therapy session.

Child questionnaire

If my child has been referred to this practice by a managed care or insurance company, or I plan to request Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT file for reimbursement with a managed care or insurance company, I am aware that she may have to waive my child's right to confidentiality as it pertains to in the managed care or insurance company. If she is an approved provider, she may have to share all the information I/my child provide with this organization. I understand Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT will do so as required to get me all the treatment that is appropriate. I am aware that the organization is not bound by her ethical and legal requirements on maintaining the confidentiality my treatment may require. Once these records are in the possession of the managed care or insurance company, Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT cannot guaranty their continued confidentiality.

PAYMENT

I understand payment is due at the time of service. Payment schedule will be made known to me before my initial session.

MISSED PAYMENTS

I understand if I do not uphold my responsibility to pay for services, this may result in the termination of treatment with Ms. Bedsole and referral for appropriate treatment services elsewhere.

MISSED SESSIONS

If I need to cancel a session with Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, I agree to provide at least 24 hours notice. If I do not provide this notice, I understand I will be billed the full amount of the therapy session.

TERMINATION OF TREATMENT

I understand the length of time required for therapy will be determined by my child's personal situation. I understand Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT will do her best to fulfill my therapeutic needs and to provide my child with her best professional care. For my part, I agree to participate in the process as needed to the best of my ability. It is intended that when my child's needs are met, to the extent that they can be, we will terminate our relationship. There is no guarantee of a cure.

I understand I may terminate treatment at any time. This may be accomplished in any one of several ways. These include, but are not limited to, putting it in writing, informing her verbally, failing to maintain my appointment schedule without proper notification, or failure to follow treatment recommendations. I understand Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT will respect my wishes to terminate treatment. I also understand the method I choose to accomplish termination will impact any decision to resume a therapeutic relationship with her.

My signature on this consent form verifies that I have had the opportunity to ask questions regarding procedures, policies, and therapeutic techniques, that my questions were answered to my satisfaction by Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, and that I voluntarily give my consent for treatment. I understand that I have the right to withdraw my consent for treatment at any time.

Consent for Communication with Primary Care Provider

Dear Parents:

In an effort to coordinate the care of my patients with their providers in the community, as well as to fulfill insurance obligations, I am requesting your permission to inform your child's primary care physician about your participation in assessment and/or treatment with me. At times, speaking with a child's primary care physician is helpful, especially concerning issues of medication, treatment follow-up, and psychological issues impacting your child's well-being. Moreover, as your child's primary care physician carries the total responsibility for your child's medical care, it is important the physician have access to information related to your child's health and treatment.

Custody Dispute Contract

Client's Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

The purpose of this contract is to obtain written agreement that the mental health provider, Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT will not be asked to participate in any litigation regarding any custody or access disputes. If Ms. Bedsole is asked to participate in any litigation, Ms. Bedsole's neutral role with the family may be compromised. This is likely to seriously jeopardize any progress that may have been made in therapy, to hinder likelihood of future progress, and possibly to limit the patient's willingness to seek help from a mental health provider at any later time in his/her life. In order to prevent these problems or potential problems, it is crucial that Ms. Bedsole, the parents, and the patient have every reassurance that there will be absolutely no involvement on Ms. Bedsole's part in any current or future litigation between parents. This is best accomplished by both parents signing this statement:

We wish to enlist the services of Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, P.C. in the treatment of our child, _____ . We understand that such treatment will be compromised if information revealed therein is brought to the attention of the court in the course of a custody dispute. Accordingly, we mutually pledge that we will neither individually nor jointly involve Ms. Bedsole in any litigation whatsoever. We will neither request nor require Ms. Bedsole to provide testimony in court. We will neither request nor require Ms. Bedsole to turn over her notes to the court or any attorneys or other personnel involved in any custody dispute process. If the services of a mental health professional are desired for court purposes, the services of a person other than Ms. Bedsole must be enlisted.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE HEALTH INSURANCE PORTABILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY ACT (HIPAA), THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED, AS WELL AS HOW YOU MAY GAIN ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY AND SIGN THE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT.

Protecting Your Personal and Health Information

This notice will explain how we handle your medical/mental health information. Applicable federal and state laws require us to maintain the privacy of clients' personal and health information. In this Notice, your personal or protected health information is referred to as "health information" or "PHI" and includes information regarding your health care and treatment with identifiable factors, such as your name, age, address, income or other financial information. Because state and federal laws, combined with our professional ethics, are very complicated, some parts of this notice are very detailed and may seem difficult to understand. Please know Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, PC is committed to protecting the privacy of your health and personal information and is available to answer any questions you may have.

How We Protect Your Health Information

Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, P.C. protects your health information by treating all of your health information that she collects as confidential (for exceptions to confidentiality see Consent for Treatment), by training all staff in federal and state confidentiality policies and practices per HIPAA, by restricting access to your health information only to those office staff that needs to know your health information in order to provide her services to you, and by maintaining physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to comply with federal and state regulations guarding your health information.

Uses and Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, P.C. may use or disclose your protected health information for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes if you have given consent to receive evaluation or treatment services.

Clarification of terms:

PHI- information in your health record that could identify you.

Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

Treatment- when office provides, coordinates, or manages your health care and other services related to your health care. An example of treatment would be when our office consults with another health care provider, such as your family physician.

Payment- when you provide reimbursement for the services you receive in the office. An example of payment would be when our office discloses your PHI to your health insurer to obtain reimbursement for your health care or to determine eligibility or coverage.

Health Care Operations – are activities that relate to the performance and operation of our office. Examples of health care operations are quality assessment and improvement activities, business related matters such as audits and administrative services, case management and care coordination, and conducting training and educational programs or accreditation activities.

Use – Activities within the office such as sharing, employing, applying, utilizing, examining, and analyzing information that identifies you.

Disclosure – Activities outside of the office, such as releasing, transferring, or providing access to information about you to other parties.

Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, PC and any administrators of her may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside Treatment, Payment, or Health Care Operations when your authorization is obtained. An "authorization" is written permission above and beyond the general consent that permits only specific disclosures. In those instances when the office is asked for information for purposes outside of Treatment, Payment, or Health Care Operations, we will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information.

Specific authorization is also obtained before releasing your psychotherapy notes. Psychotherapy notes are notes made about treatment and are given a greater degree of protection than PHI.

You may revoke all such authorizations at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. After that time, we will not use or disclose your information for the purposes originally agreed upon. However, we cannot take back any information already disclosed with your permission or that we had used in our office.

Uses and Disclosures Not Requiring Consent or Authorization

The laws lets Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, PC use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in some cases. Here are some examples of when this might occur:

Child questionnaire

When Required by Law - Suspected child abuse must be reported. Also, if you are involved in a lawsuit or legal proceeding and the provider receives a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process, some of your PHI may have to be released. This will occur only after trying to tell you about the request, consulting your lawyer, or trying to get a court order to protect the information being requested. Finally, some information has to be disclosed to governmental agencies, which check on providers to see that privacy laws are being obeyed.

For Law Enforcement Purposes – Information may be released if your provider is asked to do so by a law enforcement official to investigate a crime or criminal.

For Public Health Activities – Some of your PHI might be disclosed to agencies which investigate diseases or injuries.

Relating to Decedents – PHI might be disclosed to coroners, medical examiners, or funeral directors, and to organizations relating to organ, eye, or tissue donations or transplants.

For Specific Government Functions – PHI of military personnel and veterans may be disclosed to government benefit programs relating to eligibility and enrollment. PHI may also be disclosed to Workers Compensation and Disability Programs, to correctional facilities if you are an inmate, and for national security reasons.

To Prevent a Serious Threat to Health or Safety – If your provider believes that there is a serious threat to your health or safety or that of another person or the public, the provider can disclose some of your PHI. This disclosure will only be provided to persons who can prevent the danger.

Patient Rights and Provider's Duties

Patient Rights:

Rights to Request Restrictions – You have the right to request that your provider limits what is told to people involved in your care or the payment of your care, such as family members and friends. Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, PC may not be able to accept your request; however, if accepted she will uphold it except in case of emergency or if it is against the law.

Right to Receive Confidential Communications by Alternative Means/Locations – You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations. (For example, you may not want a family member to know that you are being seen at the office. On your request, communications will be sent to an alternate address.)

Right to Inspect and Copy – You have the right to inspect and/or obtain a copy of your records. A reasonable fee may be charged for copying. Access to your records may be limited or denied under certain circumstances, but in most cases you have a right to request a review of that decision. On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the request and denial process.

Right to Amend – You have the right to request in writing an amendment of your health information for as long as PHI records are maintained. The request must identify which information is incorrect and include an explanation of why you think it should be amended. If the request is denied, a written explanation stating why will be provided to you. You may also make a statement disagreeing with the denial, which will be added to the information of the original request. If your original request is approved, we will make a reasonable effort to include the amended information in future disclosures. Amending a record does not mean that any portion of your health information will be deleted.

Right to an Accounting – You generally have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI. If your health information is disclosed for any reason other than treatment, payment, or operation, you have the right to an accounting for each disclosure of the previous six (6) years. The accounting will include the date, name of person or entity, description of the information disclosed, the reason for disclosure, and other applicable information. If more than one (1) accounting is requested in a twelve (12) month period, a reasonable fee may be charged.

Electronic vs. Paper – If you received this notice electronically (e.g., accessing a website) you have the right to obtain a paper copy of the notice from the office upon request.

Duties of Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, PC:

Provider is required by law to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with this notice of legal duties and privacy practices. Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, PC reserves the right to change the privacy policies and practices and terms of this Notice at any time, as permitted by applicable law. She reserves the right to make the changes in privacy practices and the new terms of our Notice effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we made the changes. Unless we notify you of such changes, however, the office is required to abide by the terms currently in effect.

Questions and Complaints

For questions regarding this Notice of our Privacy Practices, or if you are concerned that your privacy rights may have been violated, please contact Ruth E. Bedsole, MA, LPC, LMFT, PC. You may also make a written complaint to the US Department of Health and Human Services, whose address can be provided upon request. If you choose to make a complaint with the US Department of Health and Human Services, or with me, I will not retaliate in any way.
